Charity walk trophies

THIS year's annual Workington to Keswick 32-mile walk raised more than £12,000 for charity, it was announced this week.

Some of the top performers from the 155 participants in the March event gathered at the Workington Zebras rugby club on Tuesday for the presentation of prizes and proceeds.

The Pride of Cumbria air ambulance, Maryport Inshore Rescue and Hospice at Home West Cumbria each received £3,900, while donations of £100 were made to Workington Rambling Club, Cockermouth Mountain Rescue Team, Ullock Village Hall, Seaton Scouts, Workington Royal British Legion, Workington Red Cross and Buttermere School Hall, which all helped with the event.

Larry Abel took the prize for fastest veteran male, Paul Jackson took the trophy for fastest male, Tina Brown was fastest veteran female and Michelle Magrath was fastest female.

The fastest junior woman trophy went to Megan Thompson while Paul Ayre took the fastest junior man prize. The highest sponsored man was Shaun Ayre, the highest sponsored woman was Lyndsay O'Hare and the highest sponsored competitor who completed the course in under six hours was Andrew Adams.

The prize for fastest team went to Richard Kirkham, Mike Kenwright and Larry Abel.

Walk treasurer Jack Canfield said some money was still being handed in and that would be carried over for next year's charities, which are likely to be chosen in September.
